Jepsen Jumps To No. 1; Rihanna Finds Top 10 Again

Carly Rae Jepsen becomes the first woman in a year to crown Billboard's Nielsen BDS-based Mainstream Top 40 chart with her first entry as a lead artist, as "Call Me Maybe" rings up a 2-1 rise with Greatest Gainer honors (up 1,341 plays).

Adele was the last woman to top the tally in her first chart visit exactly a year ago today, when "Rolling in the Deep" began a five-week command. The song became the first of two No. 1s — "Set Fire to the Rain" led for four weeks this year—and four top 10s from her album 21.

The previous two female lead artists to conquer Mainstream Top 40 on their first tries have likewise written impressive chart histories. On the Feb. 6, 2010, chart, Ke$ha spent the first of seven weeks on top with "TiK ToK." She's since added a second leader, "Your Love Is My Drug," and four other top 10s.

Before Ke$ha, Lady Gaga was the last lead woman to dominate the chart with her introductory single, when "Just Dance," featuring Colby O'Donis, led the week of Jan. 24, 2009. The song became her first of a record six career-opening No. 1s. She tallied a seventh No. 1 with "Born This Way" last year.

Before ascending to the Mainstream Top 40 summit, Mission, British Columbia, native Jepsen ruled the Billboard Canadian Carly Rae Jepsen dials up a No. 1, as "Call Me Maybe" rises 2-1 on Mainstream Top 40.

Hot 100 with "Maybe" for four weeks. "There are no words," she told Billboard at the time. "I feel so blessed, so honored."

IRI RISES: Thanks to "Where Have You Been," Rihanna finds herself in familiar territory: the top 10 on the Mainstream Top 40 and Rhythmic charts. The song climbs 12-8 on both lists.

Rihanna extends her record for most Mainstream Top 40 top 10s, as "Where" is her 21st. Mariah Carey ranks second with 17, dating to the chart's Oct. 3, 1992, launch. Notably, Rihanna didn't make her chart entrance until 2005.

Now with 22 Rhythmic top 10s, Rihanna passes Carey and Usher, and trails only Lil Wayne (27) and Ludacris (26). ●●●

Billboard's Mainstream Top 40, Rhythmic and Adult Top 40 charts rank total weekly plays (for the week ending Sunday) on 138, 71 and 85 stations, respectively, as monitored 24 hours a day, seven days a week by Nielsen BDS. Titles receive bullets if even or gaining in weekly plays. Average Plays per Station reflects Mainstream Top 40 titles' weekly plays totals divided by the number of stations on which they received airplay in the chart's tracking week. Greatest Gainers reflect titles with the top weekly increases in plays. New and Active lists the top titles gaining in plays below the Mainstream Top 40 chart. Chart data presented is this update is preliminary and subject to change, pending final review by Billboard and BDS. Finalized charts can be viewed on Monday afternoon via Nielsen BDS' subscription platforms or via subscription to www.billboardplus.com. © 2012, Prometheus Global Media, LLC and Nielsen BDS, Inc.
